

SESSION XIII

THE PASTOR AS BISHOP—

THE PASTOR'S PERSONAL LEADERSHIP

Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation. (Hebrews 13:7)

There are four basic kinds of leadership. None of them are bad in themselves.

1. _____ leadership
2. _____ leadership
3. _____ leadership
4. _____ leadership

“You develop the _____, God will develop the _____.”

There are three basic principles of spiritual leadership:

1. The _____ Principle (Who he is).
2. The _____ Principle (Where he is headed).
3. The _____ Principle (Who is following him).

I. The Personal Principle—Who He Is.

1. His _____
 - A. _____
 - B. _____
 - C. _____
 - D. _____

2. His _____

3. His _____

“Vision is _____ based on _____ that leads to
_____.”

4. His _____

II. The Purpose Principle—Where He Is Headed.

1. Have an overarching _____.

Sample purpose statement

Our church exists for the purpose of:

- Magnifying Jesus through worship and the Word.
- Making Jesus known to our neighbors and the nations.
- Moving believers in Jesus toward ministry and maturity.

2. Set specific _____.

3. Implement creative _____.

3. Initiate definite _____.

III. The Persuasion Principle—Who Is Following Him.

1. You should mentor _____. Ask God for someone that you can personally mentor.

2. You should lead and guide _____.

The pastor is both the priest and prophet at the home.

3. You should _____ and _____ your team.

You have to _____ your team.

You have to _____ your team.

You have to _____ your team.

You have to _____ to your team.

Class A people will choose Class _____ people, Class B people will choose Class _____ people. How do you keep your church strong? Have as many “Class A” people on the top line as you can.

Move with the _____; lead the _____.

4. You must recognize that you have leadership that is _____

_____.

